MARIE BACK ON U.S. SOIL SUNDAY

Queen Marie's train, en route to Winnipeg, Oct. 20 (AP).—The United States again will take up the role of host to Queen Marie tomorrow and keep it throughout the remainder of the continental tour except for a few hours which will be spent in Vancouver.

Winnipeg, the party's destination there, it left Ottawa Thursday night, will be reached tonight and St. Paul, the next American city, will be reached Sunday afternoon.

Queen Marie expects to attend services at a Roman Catholic church in St. Paul, and Prince Nicholas and his sister, Princess Marie, also are looking forward to spending some of the day in Minneapolis.

Nicholas will be taken through a tour mill, a trip much more interesting than making the rounds of official functions, and unless Queen Marie decides to go with her brother, she may play a few games of tennis.

Jap Crater Spouts Shower of Ashes 10,000 Ft. in Air

Tokyo, Oct. 20 (JNS).—Mount Taranaki, in the central part of the Island of Hokkaido, erupted with a terrific explosion today, according to advices from Sapporo, the capital of the northern island.

A column of smoke, fire and ashes was thrown ten thousand feet in the air by the first eruption, the dispatches stated, some of the ashes falling as far as 120 miles away.

Three houses at the base of the mountain were destroyed.

BRITISH FLEET IN GREAT MIMIC SEA FIGHT

Portland, Eng., Oct. 20 (AP).—A dramatic exhibition of Great Britain's naval power was given off today by the collision of the dominant vessels and other dispatches to the naval conference.

Unhappily here on the flagship Revenge, they were held stationary for five hours by the fumes of the guns, torpedo attacks and fleet maneuvers simulating all the phases of naval warfare.

A few minutes after the Revenge left Portland, submarines were diving to torpedo depth, and aircraft were launched for reconnaissance. The Revenge, with her paravanes out, passed through minefields, while destroyers formed a screen ahead.

The paravane, a device used in the first war for detecting submerged submarines, is also employed in preventing vessels from mines and for cutting up hostile minefields.

Submarines then launched an attack on the Revenge, while destroyers, controlled with depth charges, after she had been at sea two hours, the Revenge signaled the cruiser screen in front of the Revenge that she was in danger.

The first line of battle, a total of twenty British guns, turned the first on a broad target.

Stars Who Are Lighting Up College Gridirons

GENERAL HARDING may be this young man's title some day, but he should worry for he's a general now. He's the Army eleven's field general, or quarterback, and a good one, too. He is a dangerous opponent on all counts, and will worry Yale today.

FIT AND FIGHTING is Mr. Fitzgerald of Tufts. This versatile youth holds down a regular end berth on the Jumbo eleven, but is seen here getting off a sizable boot. Fitz should shine against the Crimson in the Stadium this afternoon.

CLEMENT NOT SO CLEMENT. There will be no clemency shown by Capt. Clem Coady of Harvard for the Crimson's future opponents. Now that this team has got going, all corners are warned to beware. Coady is not only the captain, but the star kicker.

AND STILL HE RUNS. The indefatigable Jimmie Henigan, who will compete in the N. A. A. U. championship 10-mile run at Yonkers on Sunday. The pick of the country will be there.

TO ENTERTAIN DAYTON. Sheldon Daly is on the Holy Cross reception committee which entertains the Dayton eleven in an inter-sectional tilt at Worcester today.

EAGLES UNDER CAV'S EAGLE EYE. Al Weston, Boston College's star sophomore back, is being tackled by a teammate while Coach Cavanaugh is right there to see that it's done right. According to those who ought to know, Weston is one of the hardest men to tackle now playing college football. Nothing gets by the Major, and if it isn't done right, it will be done again.

CURLEY EDES of Brown, a speedy backfield star of Tuse McLaughry's startling Bruin squad. He will see action against Dartmouth today at Hanover, where Brown is the favorite.

BRUIN GUARD. Louis Farber, sophomore star, who was one of the eleven Brown players who stayed in 60 minutes against Yale and won. He is playing his first year on the varsity.

THE ADMIRAL of the Navy's football team, Captain Wickhorst. He is rated among the best of the season's tacklers, and is an inspiration to his men, as well as a fine player.

OUT TO WIN SPURS. Houston, sub Dartmouth tackle, will probably start against Brown owing to first string injuries. As this is a letter game, he will fight to win his spurs.
